USEFUL RECIPES

Snow Cream.—One quart cream, whites of three eggs beaten, four teaspoons sweet wine, sugar to taste, lemon or vanilla, whip to a froth; serve.

Fruit Cake.—Two cups butter, two of sugar, three eggs, flour enough to roll out thin, spice to taste. When ready for the oven sprinkle over white sugar.

Hickory Nut Cake.—Three cups flour, two cups sugar, three eggs, one-half cup butter, one pint nuts, one cup milk, two teaspoonsful of baking powder.

Soft Cookies.—Two cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one cup of milk, two eggs, seeds, half-teaspoonful of soda in hot water. Stir commonly thick and pour in tins.

Family Gingerbread.—Two cups molasses, one cup boiling water, two teaspoonfuls of soda, two-thirds cup butter, two teaspoonfuls of ginger; stir as thick as will pour.

Tea Cake.—Two cups sugar, three eggs, two-thirds cup of butter, half cup of cream, one teaspoonful of soda, three cups flour, nutmeg or any other spice, add currants or citron if you please.

Apple Cake.—Two cups of dried apples sliced, soak over night and then boil in a cup of molasses and let it cool, one and a half cups sugar, two eggs, half cup of sour milk, one cup butter, teaspoonful of all kinds of spice, one teaspoonful of soda.

Lemon Cake.—Three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, rub them to a cream, stir in the yolks of five eggs, well beaten; dissolve a teaspoonful of soda in a cup of milk, beat the whites to a froth and add them. Sift in four cups of flour, add the peel and juice of one lemon—grate the rind.

Vegetable Soup.—One onion, one turnip, one potato, one head of celery, or a teaspoonful of celery seed, soaked bread, one quart of water, a little salt. Put all the ingredients into a quart of water, and boil until reduced to one-half; make some slices of toast and strain the liquid over them.

White Mountain Cake.—For two cakes: One cup butter, two of sugar, one cup corn-starch, two cups flour, two-thirds of a cup of sweet milk, whites of eight eggs, one teaspoonful baking powder. For frosting: the whites of four eggs are sufficient for the frosting, layers and top, sugar to make thick enough.

Omelet, Very Nice.—Three eggs, white and yolks beaten well separately, one-half cup of milk, one tablespoonful of flour, one-half tablespoonful butter, pepper and salt to taste; divide the milk, stirring the flour in one-half, put the other half where it will be just warm enough to melt the butter. Butter the frying pan, have it hot, then pour the mixture after stirring all together, into the pan. The omelet is much nicer to stir the whites in the last thing before putting on to cook, fold when brown on under side.

THE DOCTORS' YIELDING

Ever since Prof. Green wrote to the Medical Record, advising physicians everywhere to use the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure in their practice, it has been gaining in favor with the profession. They can find nothing which is a substitute for it. R. D. Gault, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., says he would now prescribe it to all who are afflicted with serious kidney and liver diseases.

REPUBLICAN PARTY HELD ITS CONVENTION TO-DAY, and is expected to instruct for Grant and Blaine.

Of the seven delegates from Cook county, three are for Blaine, three for Callom and one for Fort.

MORE COUNTIES HEARD FROM.

Since yesterday we have received reports of Republican conventions in a number of counties. The following sent Grant delegates to Springfield: Saline 2, Union 2, Ogle 7, Perry 4, Calhoun 1, Polk 2. Lake county sends six for Blaine and one for Washburne.

SEVENTH WARDERS recently gave a dinner to President Angell, of Michigan University, just appointed Minister to China. Among the guests were Congressman Cox, Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. On the Secretary's presenting Mr. Cox to the guest of the evening, Mr. Cox exclaimed: "Why, Jim Angell!" "Why, Sir," responded President Angell, "the two had been classmates at Brown University over a third of a century ago, and had not met since."

It is rumored that the pope is about to issue or has issued a papal manifesto based on the political struggle in Ireland. It seems that the supreme pontiff has, according to his instructions, been kept informed by telegraph of the course and progress of public affairs over there, and that he has been profoundly impressed by the unprecedented success of Mr. Parnell's war with the priesthood. The Parnell victories are considered to mark a new departure in the relations of the priests and their flock. The Vatican is expected in this crisis to thunder against Mr. Parnell and his lieutenants as revolutionary propagandists, whose aim is to transplant to Irish soil continental socialism and infidelity.

THE ROTHSCHILD trial for murder is set for June 7. There is scarcely any doubt that the trial will take place. Under a decision of the court of appeals of Texas there cannot be another change of venue, and under the new criminal code it is impossible to get a continuance. Rothschild is from Cincinnati, and was a drummer for a New York house. The woman he murdered he brought from Chicago. The sheriff says he has never given him any trouble, and that he is one of the best prisoners in the jail. Rothschild will have a fair and impartial trial. The decision of the court that reversed his conviction is approved. Texans have full faith in the power, majesty and efficacy of the civil law. The instances are rare, and only on the frontier, that the people have taken the law into their own hands.

THE HESING-FARWELL combination of Saturday resorted to such means to carry this city as ought to forever disgrace those engaged in the business.

Everything with two legs and a head that could be purchased was bought and led to the polls to vote against Grant. The money in many instances was disbursed openly, and thousands were paid out to shoulder-bitters, gamblers, and rascals to bring them and those they command up to the disgraceful work.

It is perfectly idle to attempt to cover up the shameless bribery by cries against the supporters of General Grant. The Grant men had no money, and wanted no money to use in the purchase of votes. They simply asked men who objected to seeing a whisky thief triumph in an assault upon the most foremost American citizen, to come out to the polls and defeat such attempt. They were opposed in the twelfth ward by methods as disgraceful as men ever employed in the slums of New York.

The line was crowded with men who had the price of their votes in their pockets, and who brazenly allowed honest citizens away from the polls. There were instances where illegal voters came up to the window there several times determined to outface public opinion and get in their purchased ballots. In the eleventh ward the names of those who can be furnished who were yesterday boasting of the fact that they voted there against Grant when they had no legal right to vote in the ward.

In the first ward, men who had lived there for four years, and who were formally known to the Blaine challengers, were refused the right to vote, and by conspiracy and another, more than three hundred Grant voters in that ward were hindered from reaching the polls. John Winterboth, who has voted in the ward for thirty-three years, says, in an interview published elsewhere, that it exceeds in disgraceful performance anything he ever witnessed in the city.

If the convention to-day were justly conducted, offenses of this character would be rebuked, and Grant would have a majority over all the candidates.

THE COOK COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Deplorable State of Affairs.

It is too soon to make up any well-considered verdict upon the merits of the difficulty which took place in the Cook county Republican convention on yesterday, and which resulted in a split, and the selection of a double delegation to Springfield. It is so sincerely regretted that this state of affairs exists, and it should be the aim of all good Republicans to use every effort to heal the breach. As a part of the history of the case we give in full the card of Mr. H. M. Singer, the chairman of the county central committee, which card may be taken as the story of the Grant side:

CHICAGO, May 10.—As chairman of the Cook county central republican committee, it was my duty to call the Cook county convention, called to meet at Farwell Hall this morning, at 10 o'clock, to order. Before taking my position upon the platform, I had determined to pursue the usual practice in effecting an organization, and consulted Mr. Charles B. Farwell as to what that custom was. I stated to Mr. Farwell that my purpose was to fairly give to the majority the power of settling the temporary organization and to submit to wards sending unopposed delegates the selection of temporary chairman. This met with Mr. Farwell's approval, but he insisted that the practice was not for the chairman of the central committee to nominate the temporary chairman. Consulting with several other gentlemen I was assured that the custom had uniformly been for the chairman of the central committee to nominate the temporary chairman. I had resolved to nominate as temporary chairman Mr. George C. Struckman, a Washburne delegate from the seventh district, subject to the will of the majority, fully expressed. I called the convention to order, and after the call was read by the secretary, proceeded to state to the convention what was the usage, as I am informed, intending to nominate Mr. George C. Struckman as temporary chairman, subject to the action of the convention. This I was prevented from doing. Some person in the hall immediately nominated Mr. Elliott Anthony as chairman, and Mr. Anthony immediately took a position upon the platform, holding in his hand a paper in which were the names of a "committee on credentials." I was hustled from the platform, and amid a scene of indescribable confusion and uproar, I returned to my position, and no organization of even a temporary character having been effected, and the proceedings being so riotous in character that it was impossible to transact any business whatever, and after endeavoring vainly for a long time to restore order, I declared an adjournment to the club room at the Palmer House, to which place I proceeded, and where an organization was effected.

(Signed) V. H. M. SINGER, Chairman of Cook county republican central committee.

The committee of the Grant convention here issued an address to the republicans of the state of Illinois in which they repeat the history of the Farwell Hall disturbance and say "it is essential to an intelligent judgment of the entire situation, the leading features of which we have already presented, that the circumstances under which the Cook county convention was called be fully understood by the republican electors of this state. Upon reference to that call it will be seen that it was a convention to be composed of delegates elected by the senatorial districts. Cook county is composed of seven senatorial districts. In three of these, which would be entitled to thirty-six delegates to the state convention, Gen. Grant received a positive majority, and in two of these senatorial districts a plurality over the other candidates. It has never been the custom or the practice in republican conventions held in this county for the entire convention, as a body, to select delegates to the state convention. The practice has been to select delegates either by wards or senatorial districts. The custom has ripened into a law, the justice and propriety of which cannot fail to be recognized. It is hardly possible to conceive of an atrocity so great, or an outrage so conspicuous, as the disfranchising of these senatorial districts. Indeed, the republicans of the county of Cook could hardly anticipate that so gross a violation, not only of the common law of the party, but the common decency of all parties, would be attempted. Driven, however, to the most desperate extremities, and resolving to compass the defeat of Gen. Grant in our state convention by any means and by all means, it was decided to pursue this unwarranted and extraordinary course, and the public were shocked and stunned this morning to find that while the Chicago Tribune in its Sunday edition had recognized the right of Gen. Grant to at least thirty-six delegates from the county of Cook to the state convention, it this morning denied that right, and insisted upon the convention over-riding all precedents and all propriety, and practically disfranchising these senatorial districts. That concert of action had been taken upon this question was evident from the editorial appearing in the State Zeitung, of this city, and owned and controlled by Mr. Anton C. Hesing, Mr. Charles B. Farwell and others, advocating the same idea and insisting that the Cook county convention as a body must send a solid and Grant delegation to Springfield. Thus admonished, the delegates who were favorable to Gen. Grant appeared at the place appointed for the meeting of the convention in proper time prepared to assert in all legitimate methods their clear and indisputable rights. The convention proceeded in a business manner. Mr. Charles B. Farwell, then president of the convention, announced that under no circumstances could they be permitted to have a single delegate at the hands of that convention. As characterizing the methods of the convention, it is worthy of comment that in one hour the most popular name, the name in which the Grant delegates were elected by a clear and decisive majority, their credentials were signed by all the Judges, but a manufactured and fictitious contest was organized, and when Mr. Anthony, who had been elected chairman of the convention by his friends, proceeded to his place upon the platform, he had in his hands the list of the committee on credentials, and on that list were the names of those delegates from the nine wards and who appeared in that convention only for the purpose of contesting the right of the regularly-elected delegates.

In closing, they appeal to the state convention to right the wrong by giving the Cook county convention assembled at the Palmer House the fair representation of delegates. The address is signed by E. M. Singer, R. T. Lincoln, Leonard Sweet, Stephen A. Douglas, Emory A. Storrs and others of the committee.

THE INSELT TO GEN. GRANT.

Florida Journal.

General Grant was used in Springfield for a livery bill of $15. The facts seem to be that when he was a captain in the early part of the war, he hired a horse at a livery stable in that city and paid for the same. After he had left the city with his regiment, the livery stable keeper charged him with $15 more, claiming that he had kept the horse to this amount waiting for the General to use him. The livery stable man found a shyster lawyer mean enough to sue the invited guest of the city for this amount and interest. The bill was paid. It is singular that any man could be found thus to insult a man who has twice been elevated to the chief magistracy of the republic. The sole intent of the action was to insult the General, for the amount of the bill was tendered the individual if he would keep away, provided the bill was a just one. The act was a small-souled contemptible trick, and will be so viewed by every one. There is no protection against the bite of a goat.

A REMARKABLE lawsuit was tried last week in our neighboring city of Galesburg, wherein a resident of that city named E. Junius Edwards was sued for damages. Edwards vigorously kicked a boy named Cousins, aged eight years, last fall, at or near the base of his spinal column, as a punishment for scoring the bark of one of Edwards' trees. The little fellow soon became quite sick, apparently from the effects of the kick, and one after another of the functions of his body became prostrated, until now he is in a helpless and pitiable condition, ruined for life. All the physicians in Galesburg and neighboring cities examined the boy and were witnesses in the trial of the suit against Edwards. The defense set up that most of the alleged injury was feigned, but this being so improbable in a boy eight years old, the jury believed it, and made the defendant feel their disbelief in such a defense by giving the boy, last Friday, a verdict for $12,000.

Who exulted in the success of the knavery and intrigue to defeat the will of the Republicans of Cook county at the primaries on Saturday? The editor of the paper that worked with the Democrats against the Republican party in 1872; the editor of the paper that was suppressed for treasonable utterances during the war; and every grinning Copperhead who chuckled over the defeat of Union armies seventeen and eighteen years ago. The exultation of such men is consistent. They were always against the Republican party, and we are glad they are now.—Inter-Ocean.

DR. MANLY, Milk Inspector of Cincinnati, says the Commercial has "issued his official order to dairymen holding permits to sell milk within the city limits, that they must turn all their cows to pasture at least five hours a day, until further orders, or their licenses will be revoked, and they will be proceeded against according to law." In this direction the cows have such a habit of wading in the water, and diluting the milk, that people insist that they should be kept haltered.

TELEGRAPHIC

POLITICAL.

Cook County Republican Convention.

It Separates and Appoints a Double Set of Delegates.

Washington Gossip.

TOLEDO, May 11.—Corn 41 cents, wheat $1.22 cash.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Intense excitement prevails in this city over the political complications growing out of the Republican primary elections in Cook county on Saturday. The contest for the control of the county convention was the most bitter ever made in this city, and has created a great deal of bad blood. The Inter-Ocean charges that frauds were committed by the Washburne and Blaine men at several of the polls, and on the other hand the Tribune alleges frauds in the Second, Fifth, Ninth and Eleventh wards, on behalf of the Grant supporters. When the county convention met at Farwell Hall to-day, the passions of the different factions had been wrought up so that a split took place, and two conventions are now in session, the result of which will be that two sets of delegates will be sent to Springfield. The chairman of the county convention, H. M. Singer, was known to be a Grant man and when he called the convention to order, without waiting for him to make any motions, a member arose and nominated Elliott Anthony, a Washburne man, for chairman. Before Singer could say anything there were loud cries from all parts of the house for Anthony to take the chair, and amid a great uproar Anthony advanced to the stand and Singer was hustled off the stage. There was a general rush to the stage, and for a moment it looked as if there would be a general fight, but finally some kind of order was restored and most of the Grant delegates withdrew from the hall, proceeded to the Palmer House, and there organized a second convention.

It is claimed by the Grant men that Singer only wished to ask if it was customary for the chairman to select temporary chairman, when he was pulled off and driven from the stage. On the other hand, it is said in excuse, that it was understood to be Singer's intention to put a person friendly to the minority forward, but he, as it may be, is generally considered that the majority were over-hasty and arbitrary. They had control, and after waiting for the chair any one they wanted, Grant's friends claim nothing was left them but to withdraw and organize separately. The Fifteenth Ward delegates, headed by F. C. Klokke, a Grant man, remained with the Farwell Hall convention. The Blaine-Washburne contested delegation of the 12th Ward was admitted to seats in the convention, but no other chance was made. This convention then proceeded to appoint a committee to select delegates to the state convention on the 19th inst., which is reported to give Washburne 58 delegates and Blaine 34. The Palmer House convention was addressed by Messrs. Storrs, Sweet, Gen. Mann, Clough and others, and a resolution was decided to send a solid Grant delegation to Springfield.

Both the conventions during the afternoon appointed full delegations to Springfield, that at the Palmer House sending a solid Grant delegation. It is understood that some overtures toward a compromise have been made, but the coalition seems unwilling to yield any particulars, and there seems now no doubt that two delegations from Cook county will contest their claims to seats in the state convention.

The Grant men, to-night, are very well pleased with the result. The fact that Chairman Singer was not allowed to call the Farwell Hall Convention regularly to order, they claim, invalidates all its subsequent action. Senator Logan feels cheerful about it, says that the difficulty was not brought about by him or any of the friends of Gen. Grant. They had carried three Senatorial districts fairly and squarely, and were entitled to at least 36 delegates. This was all they asked for, and all they expected. If the Farwell Hall Convention had shown any disposition whatever to treat the Grant men with justice, a split would not be the result. Had Farwell and his gang been wise they would have treated the Grant men decently. As it is, the Washburne crowd had set down on Blaine, and no other chance was made. The gentleman from Maine will not get a solitary vote from Cook County in the State Convention. The convention will be controlled by Grant men before either of the Cook County delegations are recognized. "We are willing," said Senator Logan, "to let the convention decide for us."

At the Blaine headquarters to-night there is a good deal of indignation. The claim that the Washburne men have not carried out their contract. Reports received here up to to-night show that Grant has now 327 votes in the state. If both delegations from Cook county should be excluded from the Springfield Convention Grant will have a majority over Washburne and Blaine of 150 votes. It makes very little difference to Grant, therefore, whether Cook county secures a vote in the Convention or not. The counties to be heard from yet will send delegates for Grant, 10 for Blaine, and 87 for Washburne. They are nearly all situated south of Springfield.

(Special to the Cincinnati Times.) WASHINGTON, May 10.—Ex-United States Senator Corbin of South Carolina, and the leader of the Republican party in that State, arrived this morning. He was met by the Times and asked what the delegation from the Palmetto State would do in the Chicago Convention.

"They will vote solid for Grant all the time." "But Sherman claims eight of the delegates," interposed the Times. "Can't help what they claim. I only know that all South Carolina Republicans are for Grant, and that the delegation will be solid for him." The Blaine bureau is in a terrible state of excitement over the Illinois report. Bulletins are received hourly. As usual they claim everything, but the figures they now have in their possession show that Blaine is twenty-four delegates behind Grant, not including the Cook county returns. The only way Blaine expects to win in Illinois is by a combination with Washburne. Senator Conkling was interviewed last night and he is far from being in a pleasant frame of mind over the action of Woodin, Sessions and Birdsall. He reiterates now with as much earnestness as at any time during the campaign, that New York will vote for Grant solid and that he will be nominated by acclamation.

All political talk is now centered on the question of breaking the unit rule, the enemies of Grant swearing it can be done, while his friends adhere to the belief that it cannot be accomplished. "Don Cameron is in Philadelphia looking after the eruption there, and Conkling is in conference with New York leaders as to the revolution in that State. That there is a disposition to break instructions can not be denied, but the difficulties will be easily adjusted the more acute of the party leaders admit as highly probable.

All the trouble comes from a concerted effort of Sherman and Blaine to break Grant's forces, knowing that unless they do so they can not hope to win.

Speaker Randall has returned from New York, where he has been in conference with Tilden. He refuses to talk as to the nature of the interview, but his broad grin and unusual clear expression tells that all is lovely in Gramercy Park.

Judge Freeman of the Postoffice has returned from Tennessee, and says you can bet all your household furniture that Grant will have eighteen votes out of the twenty-four.

Senator Logan telegraphs here this morning that Grant would have Illinois beyond a doubt.

Russell Errett, the Pittsburg Representative, a leader in the party in the party in Western Pennsylvania, said to-day that the row among the delegates from Philadelphia was all bosh; that they were only doing so to attract attention and to fish for terms for their own benefit.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 10.—A heavy storm of wind and lightning swept over the city last night, but the damage was slight except that some tin roofs were torn off.

At Woodlawn, six miles from Jacksonville, on the Jacksonville and South-eastern Railroad, a tornado at 11 p. m., tore down the station-house and wrecked other houses. Mr. Bekman's house was destroyed; his right thigh broken, his 3-year old daughter instantly killed, and his wife fatally injured. The house of Jerry Cox was destroyed and his wife and hired girl blown away. They were found this morning a quarter of a mile from the site of the house—both dead.

NEW YORK, May 10.—A dispatch from San Francisco says: "Legal documents have been prepared for presentation to the Superior Court to-day, charging Mayor Kallioh with prosecuting his official position and influence to his own personal gain, and praying that Kallioh be deprived of his office of Mayor. Among the charges is one that Kallioh knowingly, willfully and corruptly, while Mayor, asked and received emoluments, gratuities, rewards and promises thereof for obtaining and furnishing employment in the public offices to divers persons and retaining said persons in office."

CITY DEPARTMENT.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce MARTIN FOSTER as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

We are authorized to announce HENRY W. DAVIS, of Long Creek township, as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

Refrigerators, Baby Carriages and Bird Cages, the finest and cheapest in the city, at E. D. Bartholomew & Co's.

Now cut grass.

City council meeting to-night.

See the works of art at the Baptist festival at the tabernacle to-night.

FACT, Milan's new process bread has no superior. 24-dtf

Rev. D. C. TOMLINSON will preach at the Universalist church to-morrow (Wednesday) evening. All invited.

THE "Caucasian Beauty" and "The Three Friends," at the tabernacle to-night. Don't fail to see them.

HOOR SKIRTS, the latest styles, made to order, on short notice, at Goldburg's, West Wood street. 19-dtf

SUPPER will be served at the tabernacle by the Baptists this evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. All are invited.

LEAVE orders at W. C. Armstrong's drug store for B. F. Taylor's carriage.

ATTEND the Baptist church festival and entertainment at the tabernacle to-night and drink the new process coffee made in the twinkling of an eye.

TE-NEX-INE.

An order was formally entered in the United States District Court at Springfield on Saturday confirming the recent sale of the Chicago & Paducah Railroad to the Wabash for $1,750,000.

THE best double lounge in the market is now on sale at P. B. Provost & Son's furniture store. dtf

THE Loan Exhibition at the tabernacle to-night is the boom of the season—statuary, portraits, etc. Something new. Don't fail to visit it.

"TRADING ALLEY," is what the boys call the alley between Powers' block and Leiby Bros' bakery. It is well named, from the fact that more or less horse trading is going on there nearly every day in the week.

THE most unprecedented demand for Febrius, stamps it at once as the most certain cure remedy known. Sold by Decatur druggists. 11-d&wlv

MILAN'S bread is always fresh and pure and sweet. 14-dtf

THE spring cleaning-up fever has struck the Decatur post office, and Captain Lytle is seeing that the job is being done up in good shape. A new plank or brick sidewalk in front of the building would be a great improvement. Those elevated nail-heads and washouts are very exasperating at times.

HOSE REEL with 50 feet three-fourth inch 3 ply Standard Hose, Hose Nozzle and Coupling, complete, for $10.00, at H. McELLER & Co's, East Main street. May 8-43mo

A. W. HARDY'S leveling machine has been doing much good work for the past few days, putting Water and Eldorado streets in splendid shape. It beats a scraper or roller all to smash, and should be in use continually.

BE it known that Lawyers Lee & Walker have taken possession of their new office in the room over "Cheap Charley's" clothing store, in the decorated parlor formerly occupied by Dr. Sibley.

TE-NEX-INE.

If you are troubled with humors, eruptions, pimples, or blotches, try a bottle of Bromoline, the great Blood Purifier. Sold by Decatur druggists. 11-d&wlv

Cure Zig-zag tobacco, clear Kentucky white filler. dtf

TE-NEX-INE.

ALL are invited to attend the Tuesday evening prayer meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at their rooms, 26 Merchant street, up stairs. Members of the executive committee should all be present at their meeting, postponed from last Tuesday evening.

THREE first class brush hands wanted immediately. MYER & SON, Decatur, Ill. April 28-dtf

V. H. PARKER has at his agricultural rooms a full line of Buggies, such as phaetons, side-bar and elliptic spring, open and top buggies, spring wagons, etc., all A. No. 1. No auction shoddy work, but first-class, and warranted so. Call and see them before you buy. March 19-d3mo

LACE Ties and Fichus, in new designs, just received by Linn & Scruggs. 21-d&wlv

Mr. Joseph Johnson, Illinois agent for the Rockwell Patent Company, has immortalized himself, and the neighbors and second warders will find the laughing his praises. He resides at 1234 North 1st street, between Church and 1st streets, and at his own expense Mr. Archer has caused a row of young evergreens to be planted on both sides of the street for the length of the block. If he does not live and flourish, he will have them replaced. That part of 1st street ought to be known hereafter as "Archer Avenue."

THE Promenade Concert to be given by the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church at the tabernacle, on Thursday evening of this week, promises to be the event of the season in its novelty and general character. We understand it differs very materially from the usual festival and the stage attractions as well as the music, consisting of some of Prof. Goodman's choicest selections, will surely attract a large attendance. We hope to be able to give more details in regard to the stage performance in to-morrow's paper.

THE recent rains have filled up the more gutters along the business streets of the city with dirt, old rags, paper, etc., interfering materially with the free passage of water, and by request of a number of shopmen, and for the benefit of the public, we call the attention of the street supervisor to the fact. The gutters ought to be flooded and cleaned out as speedily as possible for the comfort and general health of the community.

IN our circuit court room on yesterday afternoon Sheriff Forstmyer selected Prior Moore, one of the colored barbers at Dalton Steward's shop, to serve as a grand juror, and he was sworn in by the clerk. This is the first time in the history of the county that a colored citizen ever served as a grand juror, and it becomes a fact worthy of particular mention.

THE Sunday night rain storm made several bad breaks in the Illinois Midland Railway near Peoria. The wash-outs are so serious that the road cannot be used, and Midland trains yesterday reached Decatur over the Pekin, Decatur & Evansville road. The track will be repaired in a day or two.

ALL members of the Young Men's Christian Association are earnestly urged to be present at the regular meeting this evening at 7:30. There will be a meeting of the executive committee after the devotional meeting. Let every member of the committee be present.

ON Saturday, May 8th Master in Chancery Brown will sell at public auction the show grounds on North Main street, to the highest and best bidder. The space is 300 feet wide and 440 feet deep, and would make a pleasant park if properly improved.

A SINGULAR war will come in with Sullivan folk to attend the Rive-King and Little Concert on Friday night. Decatur people will please remember that this company consists of the best musical talent in the country, and not Little alone as heretofore.

SUPPER will be spread on the tables at the tabernacle this evening from 5 to 7 o'clock by the ladies of the Baptist Church. A good meal, with delicacies of the season, for 25 cents. Call in and get your supper instead of going home.

R. AUSTIN's new residence on Eldorado street is one of the handsomest and neatest dwellings in the city, and is greatly admired by strangers and citizens generally.

LARGE and luscious are those fresh strawberries received this morning direct from St. Louis for the Baptist fair and festival to be given at the tabernacle to-night.

BEWARE will be rather slack in circuit court for a number of days, and things get in shape for jury trials.

JAMES HOY, a young man of intelligent appearance, aged 24 years, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Hoy, residing north of the Union depot, was brought before County Judge Graham yesterday afternoon, and the following named jurymen were called upon to examine into his alleged insanity: Dr. W. H. Walters, Reuben Betzer, W. F. Foster, H. W. Davis, A. G. Benton and Wm. B. Morthland. The evidence offered convinced the jury that young Hoy's mind had been impaired by a disgusting practice, which physicians claim is unfortunately too common among young men of wayward habits. Accordingly the jury returned a verdict that Hoy had become insane, and recommended that he be confined in an asylum. He will probably be taken to Jacksonville for skilled medical treatment.

Good Templars. At the regular meeting of Decatur Lodge No. 344, I. O. G. T., held on Monday evening, the following named officers for the ensuing quarter were installed: Joseph Lefors, W. G. T. Miss Mollie Lefors, W. G. T. Richard School, W. G. T. D. H. H. W. F. B. Mrs. Henry Sturges, W. T. Will Ledy, Jr., W. M. Miss Jennie Young, W. D. M. Mrs. J. W. Wolcott, W. I. G. Miss Ida Collins, W. A. S. D. B. McCall, W. O. Eugene Pratt, W. B. Miss Ella Wyatt, E. H. S. Miss Ella Cassell, L. H. R.

Regular drill of the Decatur Guards Wednesday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is required. By order W. W. Forster, J. G. Schaeffer, O. L. Capt. Cowg.

We show an elegant line of these goods, ranging in price from 50c upwards. There are some to compare with ours as to quality of price. Come and look at our corsets and price them. 11-d&wlv

Here About That Shooting Scrape. In yesterday's issue we gave the reported account of the Berry Johnson shooting scrape, which took place on Saturday night. In the account appeared the statement that when Johnson stopped at Weber's beer hall "Bill Ward, Mag Lawson and Pan Higgins were with him, and that the whole gang started across the bridge in a wagon." Ward says the foregoing is incorrect, and states that he, Johnson and C. C. Davis were up town on Saturday night and that all three started home in his (Ward's) wagon. On arriving at Weber's the party got out; that in a short time Ward and Davis got in the wagon and drove off to the "haunted house" across the river, leaving Johnson and two women, one of whom was Pan Higgins, and the other, dressed in blue, he didn't know, in the hall with the barkeeper. Ward also states that he tried to induce Johnson to go along, but he was a little full and refused to go. Ward further stated that he and Davis crossed the bridge, and to keep out of the storm he drove up and tied his horses to Davis' fence and went into the house and remained there; that some time afterward, while he and Davis were still in the house, he heard two pistol shots, and then loud talking at Mrs. Johnson's, across the road north and west of the "haunted house." Ward says Davis could not have done the shooting because he was indoors at the time the tragedy was enacted. Soon after the reports were heard, at the suggestion of Davis, who said while listening to the commotion going on at Mrs. Johnson's, that he guessed Berry was smashing up the furniture again, he and Davis ran down to Johnson's where they found Berry lying on the bed bleeding profusely from a bullet wound in his breast, as described yesterday, and the mother nearly frantic with grief. Berry wouldn't tell where he was shot or who did the shooting, but entreated Ward to go instantly for Dr. Weems, which he did without loss of time. And this is all Ward knows about the case. It is certainly a very mysterious affair, and will probably never be unravelled.

JOHNSON'S CONDITION. Dr. Weems visited Berry Johnson this forenoon. The wounded man displays remarkable courage, but that he will die in a short time is a foregone conclusion in the surgeon's mind. It appears that Johnson has been bleeding internally, causing his body to swell up in the region of the stomach and rendering it exceedingly difficult for him to breathe. He realizes that he cannot live, and this forenoon between 10 and 11 o'clock, he made a sworn statement to State's Attorney Buckingham, taken down by Notary David Hutehison. The statement will be given to the public at the proper time. Johnson, we are informed, is uncertain as to who shot him, as it was quite dark when the deed was committed, but he thinks he has made a pretty good guess.

Teachers' Meeting. Meeting called to order by County Sup't Trainer.

The subject of Mathematical Geography was discussed by Mr. Philbrook. Mr. Erwin then took up the subject of Punctuation and Composition.

Mr. Trainer talked upon the subject of Evolution and Evolution.

The subjects of Mathematical Geography and Evolution were continued.

The rest of programme as follows: A drill on Elementary Sounds, Mr. Mounitz, Primary Grammar, Mr. E. B. Smith; Reading, Mr. McBride.

On motion, adjourned to meet the first Saturday in June. S. McBRIDE, Sec. DECATUR, ILL., May 1, 1880.

THE 14th district congressional convention will meet at Mattoon to-morrow evening. The Decatur delegation will leave for Mattoon to-morrow forenoon.

PERSONAL POINTS.

John Hatfield went eastward this noon on lined oil business.

States Attorney Emerson, of Monticello, gave us a pleasant call to-day.

Mrs. Daniel Shockey and two children, of Ramsey, are in the city on a brief visit.

J. W. Butman left for Indianapolis this noon to represent Decatur at a meeting of the Western Gaslight and Coke Association to be held there this week.

Mrs. John Imboden departed for Burlington, Iowa, this noon, via Peoria, to be absent about two weeks on a visit to friends whom she used to know back in Pennsylvania when she was a girl.

Miss Mattie Murphy, one of the beautiful belles of Taylorville, spent Sunday and Monday in Decatur as the guest of Mrs. Geo. P. Blume. She departed for home on yesterday afternoon.

Lew Campbell, of the Jerseyville Democrat, is in the city on a brief visit. Lew is an old-time type, and used to manipulate a stick and rule in the old Gazette and Chronicle office. He is fat and happy.

Will L. Ferguson has just completed the new and beautiful iron fence around J. W. Rice's residence. He has the agency of this and a number of other styles of wrought iron fences. Parties wishing a good fence for a low price will do well to call on Mr. F., corner of Water and Cerro Gordo streets. 8-44

The following is from a column of Indianapolis news found in the Cincinnati Enquirer of May 8th. "By the recent changes in the railroad mail service Benj. W. Dillehunt finds himself promoted to a head clerkship on the Pittsburg and St. Louis, west. Good enough." Ben's many friends in Decatur will be pleased to learn of his worthy promotion.

New York, June 17, 1879. 311 East 74th St. New York City. DEAR LINDLE:—Please send by express one dozen "Constitution Water." The article is selling well. Wanted. All kinds of old furniture and household goods, in exchange or for cash. Will pay more than any other house in the city. New furniture, glass and queensware at prices to defy competition. We have no rents to pay, and can give our customers the benefit of the same. Give me a call before either selling or buying elsewhere. Hector, East side City Park, old Bayers House. April 10-dtf

On Friday evening last the most musical entertainment ever given in this city will take place at the opera house, in which the following eminent artists will appear: Miss Marie Litta, who is too well-known to need any comment. Mme. Rive-King, the world renowned pianist, of whom the Inter-Ocean says "Miss Rive-King fully confirmed the high opinion which was formed from the first impression she made. She entirely captivated her audience, and convinced them that the most classical programme can be rendered attractive and entertaining if only the player has the genius to render the music intelligible."

Mr. F. Dulcken is an artist musician and an accompanist of the first rank, and in his line has no equal.

Mr. Geo. A. Conly, for many years principal Bass of the Strakosch Grand Italian Opera Company, will make his first appearance since his return from London, where he met with great success with Carl Rosa's English Opera Company at Her Majesty's Theatre.

Mons. Fischer, the celebrated Belgian Violoncello-Virtuoso, has taken the New York press and public by storm. Mr. Hassard, the eminent critic of the New York Tribune, says

He is one of the strongest violoncellists who has visited this country. His facility in rapid passages is extraordinary. His intonation is faultless, and his double stopping is remarkably accurate. In his controllable playing he has a broad, firm style, and a rich, full tone, free from the excessive vibrato which mars the work of so many eminent violoncellists. His performance throughout was marked by exquisite taste, high intelligence, deep sentiment and remarkable brilliancy.

Terra Cotta. For terra cotta garden vases and chimney pipe call at O'Neill's, south side of the park. may10dlmo

We keep everything in our line; low shoes, high shoes, big shoes, little shoes, broad shoes, narrow shoes, fine shoes or coarse shoes, and if you want any other kind of a shoe we will order it for you. We aim to please. Call and see us. d&wlv BARBER & BAKER.

WE would like to keep in the mind of EVERY ONE the fact of our stock being SUPERIOR in both quality and quantity to any in the city.

Our sales are such as to enable us to offer everything NEW as fast as it comes out and at prices lower than those whose purchases are much smaller than ours. We can always offer you a "SELECTION" in ANYTHING in our line and at prices we will guarantee cannot be beaten in Illinois.

We are the SOLE AGENTS here for the celebrated "ROCKFORD QUICK TRAIN WATCHES," the standard "GORMAN STERLING SOLID SILVERWARE," as well as the "GORMAN PLATED TABLE WARE," also, "KING'S COMBINATION CRYSTAL" SPECTACLES.

We are always glad to show our Goods and have their quality and our prices compared to any in Decatur or anywhere. By giving us a call you will find OUR ADVERTISEMENT always true to the letter. Respectfully,

CURTIS & EWING, JEWELERS, 17E. MAIN ST., DECATUR, ILL.
